

Here's the story:

In June of 2014 Central City Auto Auction opened its doors.
It is a privately owned car auction located under 2 hours from the four largest cities in North Dakota.

Their new building with state of the art technology provides car dealers a great selection of vehicles from throughout the region.
This inventory is also offered to the public at an open auction.

CCAA is owned by Loren and Renee Hallwachs.
Loren has been in car sales and management his whole life.
Renee comes from 20 years of finance and marketing.
They are working full time to help you with your auction needs.
